

Contents

Assignment 1

Forces That Define Personal Insurance Products and Services	1.1
Personal Insurers' Goals	1.3
Customers' Changing Insurance Expectations	1.11
The Effect of Social Factors on Personal Insurance	1.16
Reinsurance	1.22
Catastrophes and the Personal Insurance Industry	1.26
Fraud and the Personal Insurance Industry	1.32
Determining the Forces on Insurance Products After a Catastrophe	1.40
Summary	1.47

Assignment 2

The Personal Insurance Market	2.1
Personal Insurance Market Characteristics	2.3
A Competitive Market	2.9
Technology in a Personal Lines Insurance Competitive Market	2.15
Competing Through Product Features, Price, and Service	2.21
Improving Retention and Persistency in the Personal Lines Insurance Market	2.28
Summary	2.33

Assignment 3

Developing Personal Insurance Products	3.1
Identifying Customers' Personal Insurance Needs	3.3
Identifying Changing Needs in Personal Lines Products	3.10
Determining Changes in Personal Lines Insurance Portfolios	3.17
Making Corrective Changes in a Personal Lines Insurance Portfolio	3.26
Using Costs/Benefits Analysis in New Products and Product Changes	3.30
Creating a Product Change Proposal	3.35
Summary	3.46

Assignment 4

Underwriting Profitability for Personal Insurance	4.1
Calculating Underwriting Profit and Its Impact on Policyholders' Surplus	4.3
Measuring Personal Lines Underwriting Profit	4.6
Establishing Goals for Personal Insurance Underwriting Profitability	4.13
Improving Underwriting Profitability With Increased Premiums	4.21
Improving Underwriting Profitability by Decreasing Losses and Controlling Expenses	4.27

Personal Lines Portfolio Management/Underwriting Profitability Case Study	4.33	Nontraditional Product Pricing Concepts for Personal Insurance	7.26
Summary	4.41	Summary	7.30
Assignment 5		Assignment 8
Pricing Personal Insurance Products	5.1	Responding to Customers' Changing Needs	8.1
Personal Insurance Pricing Components	5.3	Cyber Risks and Personal Insurance Customers' Changing Needs	8.3
Analyzing Loss Data and Forecasting Trends	5.10	Residence with Business Usage Changing Customers' Personal Insurance Needs	8.9
Ratemaking Principles	5.15	Green Buildings Create Changing Insurance Needs	8.13
Rate Adjustment Case Study	5.24	Twenty-First Century Personal Auto Trends	8.18
Summary	5.30	The Changing Personal Lines Needs of the Senior Population	8.23
		Summary	8.29
Assignment 6		Assignment 9
Reunderwriting Personal Insurance Portfolios	6.1	Responding to Environmental Changes	9.1
Portfolio Management Analysis Tools and Approaches	6.3	Responding to Flood and Coastal Winds Loss Exposure	9.3
Identifying the Need for Portfolio Reunderwriting	6.11	Managing the Portfolio for Wildfire and Hail Exposures	9.9
Evaluating Portfolio Management Methods	6.18	Meeting Customers' Homeowners Insurance Needs in a Declining Home Market	9.14
Applying the Reunderwriting Process to a Personal Lines Portfolio	6.26	Personal Auto Insureds and the Other Driver Risks	9.21
Summary	6.36	Mandated Regulatory Personal Lines Coverage and Policy Language Changes	9.27
		Summary	9.31
Assignment 7		Index	1
Portfolio Management Technology	7.1
Insurance Product Life Cycle Management	7.3
Automating the Underwriting Workflow	7.14
Using Tiered Rating in Underwriting	7.18
The Role of Risk Modeling in Managing Exposures Within a Portfolio	7.22

